CC#5

Circular Letter No. 104.

May 4, 1910.

(Part about English selected from this Circular Letter. The rest has not been copied.)

Courses in English for Porto Rican teachers, will be offered, the passing of which, on the part of teachers who fail to pass the examination in May, will be taken as a completion of the year's work. The passing of examination in English, with percentage of 75 or over, on the part of persons who did not fail in the examination in English in May, will exempt them from work in English during the coming school year.

Yours very truly,

EDWIN G. EXTER
Commissioner of Education